

HEARST HAS BEEN FRAMED UP FOR HEARST

Hard Job to Prevent Instructions for Him in Illinois and Be Polite, But Politicians Say John P. Hopkins the Man Who Can Do It.

BY SAMUEL G. BLYTHE, Staff Correspondent New York World

CHICAGO, June 3.—Hearst is making his last stand in Texas, Kentucky and Illinois. Information received here is he will lose in Kentucky and Texas. There is nobody of sufficient wisdom in Chicago to prophesy what the outcome will be in Illinois.

The loss of Michigan was a severe blow to the Hearst aspiration. Willis J. Abbott and Louis Stevenson, son of former Vice-President Adlai Stevenson, had been campaigning that state for months.

Daniel J. Campbell, the Democratic national committeeman from Michigan, telegraphed to a friend here that his victory and that of the conservatives is greater than appears on the surface. He claims to know the delegation, and that will be for Parker at the right time, as it will vote under the unit rule.

The situation in Illinois is as difficult as it was on the day after the Cook County caucuses when Hearst claimed all the delegates secured through the combination of Hearst and John P. Hopkins. That combination was made by Hopkins for the express purpose of defeating Mayor Carter Harrison, who had an ambition to be national committeeman and had allowed himself to think that the vice-presidential nomination might come his way. Harrison put up as his presidential candidate Representative Williams, but Williams is merely a figurehead.

Hopkins never for a moment entertained the idea of allowing Hearst to get the state, but he found, as soon as he had completed the alliance and held the caucuses, that Hearst put an entirely different construction on the combination and claimed everything in sight.

The Illinois convention will be held in Springfield on June 14. There will be 300 delegates. Of these Harrison will control 200 or 250. Some of the rest will be jointly owned by Hearst and Hopkins, and some by Hearst alone, as well as some by Hopkins alone.

The problem the Hopkins managers have on hand is to get the state away from Hearst in as polite a manner as possible. They do not want to bludgeon him, for he has two newspapers in Chicago, and the Hopkins men are looking ahead for support for their state and county tickets in the fall. They do not care much what the Hearst papers say now, but they do care what they will say next October, when all the rich Cook County patronage is at stake.

Cook County Ticket at Stake. Many of the delegates instructed for Hearst are Hopkins men, and will do what Hopkins wants them to, even to the extent of disregarding instructions if worse comes to worst. The Hopkins managers do not desire to go to this extent. Indeed, to help their county ticket, they may go so far as to let these delegates vote for Hearst and pass some sort of a mild resolution in his favor.

They do not think it will be necessary to go this far, for there are clever politicians in the Hopkins crowd. They are confident the convention will not instruct for Hearst. They go that far definitely. Hearst managers say instructions are certain. It is probable the Hopkins men have a clearer view of the situation.

The struggle will come in the committee on resolutions. That committee is just now engaging the exclusive attention of the Hopkins managers. It will consist of one delegate from each congressional district, or 3 in all. The proposition Hearst will face will be to get 13 men to vote for a resolution instructing the delegates at St. Louis to vote for Hearst.

There will be seven or eight Hearst men on the committee, some of them real Hearst men and some of them apparently so. There will be four for Williams, one or two for Olney, three or four for Parker, and the rest for nobody but themselves and what their leaders want.

Here is a hypothetical situation. The convention meets and appoints its resolutions committee. The committee retires. It has little difficulty in agreeing upon that part of the resolutions that does not relate to candidates or instructions. The resolutions are reported paragraph by paragraph as the committee agrees on them, for the convention is waiting and the delegates want to go home.

One Plan to Eliminate Indorsement. Then, after a wrangle of some hours, it is reported to the convention that the committee on resolutions cannot agree on what remains. Some delegate moves that the convention adjourn without date. The chairman—who will be the right man in that place—puts the motion, declares it carried and the convention adjourns, leaving the resolutions committee up in the air with all of its platform adopted except the part that relates to instructions and the candidate.

The delegation would be uninstructed, with half a dozen candidates at St. Louis, or before that time, somebody would get that delegation and control it. The chances are largely in favor of the control being vested in John P. Hopkins.

This, understand, is merely a hypothetical proposition, or, rather, a hypothetical would care to adjourn with its work unfinished, but there are several men in Chicago anyone of whom would make an admirable chairman in such a contingency.

UNEDUCATED, SHE WANTED TO DIE

Annie Terry, Unqualified for Any Other Life Than Servant, Took Poison.

Tired of life because she had not sufficient education to qualify her for any other vocation than that of a servant, Annie Terry, 34 years old, took a small quantity of morphine with suicidal intent Thursday night in a room on Sixth street, near Market. Patrolman Smith entered the room as the woman swallowed the drug and he summoned an ambulance. She was sent to the City Hospital, where she was soon pronounced out of danger.

She stated Friday morning that her home was in Bridgetown, Mo., where her father and mother and two children live. For several years, she said, she had been compelled to work at hotels and that she had become tired of the work. She longed for the education which she should have received when a girl, she declared, and that if life was to be spent in drudgery she wanted none of it.

"I left the country and went to a city to work when I was young," she said, "and now I realize that it was my greatest mistake. I was married in the city, but have been divorced from my husband seven years. Girls in the country should not go to the city to work. If they know what I know now I will not go. As soon as I get well I am going to Bridgetown and stay there. I have had enough of the city."

MAN WITH CRUTCH ELUDES BIG POSSE

Mystery Added to Hayti, Mo., Murder by Appearance of Supposed Victim.

CARUTHERSVILLE, Mo., June 3.—While the indignant residents of Hayti are still engaged in anxious and feverish search for the man with one leg, who is implicated in the killing of the man who was thought to be Rufe McBride, mystery is added to the crime by the appearance of McBride to take part in the man hunt.

The chase for the escaped murderer has not been lessened by the appearance of the supposed victim, but the marsh to which the fugitive was traced is surrounded by guards and armed men are making a careful search of the brush during daylight hours.

The identification of the body, now buried, puzzles the friends of McBride. They were positive and his close acquaintances say the likeness must have been remarkable, as the features were not destroyed, although disfigured.

Last night as the posse were placing guards for the night at the thick marsh to prevent the possible escape of the man with the crutch, who was easily tracked several miles, a telegram was received saying a one-legged man answering the description was under arrest at East Cape Girardeau. An officer was sent there.

The citizens of Hayti are still greatly excited over the crime and many volunteers are assisting the officers in the careful search of the possible hiding places in that part of the country.

DEPUTY AUDITOR NO MORE A BOOKIE

Leonard's Dual Job Cut Off by Auditor Allen, Following Post-Dispatch's Exposure.

Representative Thomas J. Leonard, one of the numerous members of the Missouri Legislature employed at the Delmar racetrack, has received word from Auditor Albert O. Allen that he cannot serve in the combined capacity of bookmaker and deputy auditor.

Mr. Allen's notice follows the publication in Sunday's Post-Dispatch which showed how the auditor's office was being used to further the interest of bookmakers.

Mr. Leonard's friends say that when Auditor Allen assigned to him as deputy the task of swearing in bookmakers and collecting their licenses at the Delmar track he did not object to his holding another position in the employ of the track management.

The publicity given to the fact that Leonard was holding this dual job frightened Auditor Allen, who is seeking re-nomination, and he quickly ordered Leonard to cease operations as a bookmaker.

SCHAFER MURDER REWARD NOW $4,250

Indiana Editor Called to Explain Information That Prompted Editorial—New Plot Hinted At.

BEDFORD, Ind., June 3.—W. H. Giddell, editor of a Brazil newspaper, has been summoned to appear before the grand jury to testify regarding certain information which may have prompted an editorial in a recent edition of his newspaper. He is expected to testify today.

It was reported here today that a letter from an Illinois man, stating that he and another man had been employed to kill Miss Schaffer, was received by a city official yesterday.

The reward now offered for the arrest and conviction of murderer was today increased to $4,250 by subscriptions of citizens.

AGED WOMAN SAYS HER SON BEAT HER

Feeling High in Belleville Against Frank Kreitner, Who Can Not Be Found.

Feeling ran high in Belleville Thursday evening when the neighbors of Frank Kreitner of 1117 Peabody avenue were informed that he had gone home intoxicated and had beaten his aged and infirm mother, Mrs. Augusta Kreitner, into insensibility.

A committee of 10 or 12 neighbors went to the Kreitner home last night for some unexplained purpose, but not finding Kreitner there, disbanded.

Neither did the officers find Kreitner at home when they went there to serve a warrant issued upon the complaint of the mother, Mrs. Kreitner, when she was assisted to the police station Thursday night by a neighbor, Amos Foster, who found her helpless in her front yard after her alleged mistreatment. She is 70 years old, partially paralyzed, and uses crutches. Foster carried her to his home for resuscitation before taking her to the police station.

Kreitner is a teamster. The police and indignant citizens are still on the lookout for him.

Boer to Wrest Italian.

Articles have been signed for a handicap wrestling match to take place at the Standard Theater next Friday night between Peter J. Visser (the Boer champion) and "Emil Sila," the well-known Italian champion. The Boer agrees to throw the Italian inside of 30 minutes, catch-as-catch-can style. The match is for a side bet of $200.

TORNADO SWEEPS MISSOURI COUNTY

CARTHAGE, Mo., June 3.—Jasper County was swept by a severe windstorm shortly before midnight last night and much damage done. Electric telephone and telegraph wires are down, trees uprooted, mining plants disabled and hillside crops partially destroyed. The wind was accompanied by a terrific downpour of rain, which continued all night. Streams are bank full and overflowing in places.

Today Is When.

Delay Is Never A Wise Thing.

The cleanest house in St. Louis contains several billion specimens of germ life. Fortunately for the health of all of us, a large percentage of these germs are harmless. Otherwise we wouldn't be alive to talk about C-N.

A single drop of water may contain enough bacilli to kill a regiment. But not if there was C-N in the water. C-N kills the germs of infectious diseases so quickly that they don't know what struck them. They just shrivel up and die.

Hence, dear lady, if you care for the safety and health of those you love, get C-N from any dealer and put it in every bit of water used in your house for cleaning of any sort. Just make C-N as much a part of cleaning as soap, and your house will be cleaner and sweeter and healthier than ever before. Make C-N a household habit.

BORAXOLOGY

You might say that Boraxology is a soap and water science. When you talk to people about washing scientifically they may smile if they don't know. If they do know, they'll simply see that their supply of BORAX is all right, and look happy. The question of washing is a question of chemistry; of hard water or soft water. Borax softens water and thereby doubles its cleansing power. For toilet, bath, laundry, whenever you use soap and water add a little Borax. But get it pure—20-MULE-TEAM BRAND. SAN FRANCISCO, June 1—If Jack Munroe fails to wrest the world's heavyweight championship from Jim Jeffries his failure will not be due to lack of strenuous training. Since his arrival on the coast he has plunged into an arduous course of training that would make an ordinary fighter weaker than a real good battle in the ring.

One of the novel features of Munroe's training is his boxing with Tim McGrath's "awkward squad" of sparring partners. This is somewhat of a new departure that gives Munroe a chance to meet heavy-

POLICEMAN DIES BY HIS OWN REVOLVER

Henry Hart Ends Life 15 Minutes
After Parting From a Fellow

Patrolman.

Henry Hart, aged 28, a patrolman of the Fifth district, is dead at his home, 2222 North Market street, from a bullet wound in the head, believed to have been self-inflicted by accident or design.

Five minutes after 1 o'clock, Friday morning, Hart was posted from Patrolman William Heller at Twenty-third and North Market streets, apparently in the best of spirits.

Fifteen minutes later Heller heard a shot at Hart's home, and running there, caught Mrs. Hart as she fell, fainting from the front door to the sidewalk. He carried her to the home of a neighbor, and then entered the Hart home, to find the patrolman lying dead on the kitchen floor, his right hand grasping his revolver.

Only one shot had been fired. The bullet entered Hart's forehead near the right eye and passed out at the right side of his head.

When found his coat, hat and belt had been removed. When he left Heller, he wore his uniform, having gone off duty at 11 o'clock Thursday night.

What passed between Hart and his wife during the 15 minutes from the time he parted with Heller and the firing of the shot, Mrs. Hart has not disclosed. The police give family trouble as a reason for suicide. Hart had been married two years, and had been with the police force three years. According to his friend, Patrolman Heller, he did not have any trouble on the force.

John Hart, of 30 South Tenth street, said he had seen the dead man, says he believes, at the shooting was accidental. He parted with his brother at 8 o'clock Thursday night. His brother seemed cheerful, he

NEXT SUNDAY

Some of the Interesting World's Fair
Features in the Post-Dispatch.

Especially interesting and picturesque are the World's Fair features illustrated in next Sunday's Post-Dispatch "World's Fair in Colors" series. They please the eye with their vivid and faithful portrayal of World's Fair features.

An eminent scientist will take frightful chances of sudden death in a daring experiment for science's sake at the World's Fair. He is fully alive to the peril of his undertaking, yet is so confident of the soundness of his conclusions on a disputed

Now comes to the World's Fair a genuine heroine of the American West, who won her visit by the performance of a daring deed from which many men had drawn back in dread. She leads her sex in solving the "woman problem" of how to see the fair without cost to herself and has set an example that may be widely followed. Yet she goes on, unregretted, to the fair.

A majestic painting, already ranked as perhaps the greatest of its generation, is to be exhibited in St. Louis. It has a story in which royalty and genius play dramatically contrasted parts and its subject makes a masterful appeal to all Christendom. In next Sunday's Post-Dispatch the picture is reproduced.

One of St. Louis' earnest workers along humanitarian lines has begun a World Peace movement.

movement for the benefit of American boys which promises great good to many thousands who might otherwise fall to the profit from the Fair's useful teaching. It is now a national movement and the St. Louisian is being assisted by distinguished men and women all over the Union. The history of his undertaking will win further support and touch the hearts of all lovers of children, especially of those who believe in giving poor children enlarged opportunities for educational development.

In one of the most progressive and modern of the world's cities, there is strange cult, the revival of an ancient worship, that claims thousands of disciples from among men and women. It has just caused a pitiful tragedy, the loss of reason to one of its followers after a mad attempt to overcome nature's laws, and further amazing developments of its organization and practices are impending. The story is graphically told and illustrated.

As Alice Roosevelt in next Sunday's Post-dispatch. The "Alice Roosevelt page" contains the pictures posed for and approved by her, the only ones of the kind. On the Home Page of next Sunday's Post-dispatch, in addition to handsome illustrations and discussions of new seashore styles, there is presented a collection of wise and witty sayings of St. Louis children that should be read with relief. NO "BAMBOO TREE" FOR MUSIC WOMEN

Mrs. T. O. Swinney Tells National Federation Popular Music Shows Degeneracy.

AM. FOR A MODERN BEETHOVEN

Instead of His Sonatas, We Have Passionate Protestations to "My Chimpanzee."

The National Federation of Musical Clubs will hold an all-day session Friday with Mrs. A. Deane Cooper. A classical musical program will be rendered, after which a general discussion of musical subjects will be had.

At Thursday afternoon's session, a paper read by Mrs. T. O. Swinney of Davenport, Ia., caused something of a sensation among certain of those in attendance. Mrs. Swinney is a member of the Harmonia Club of Davenport, and read a paper entitled, "The Degeneracy of Song." In it she scored unmercifully the late songs, which have been all the rage from the vaudeville stage to the parlor. She complained that at the present time there are no masters of music, none whose compositions are inspired by a lofty purpose, or a sense of the beautiful. She said there were no modern Schuberts, Beethovens, Schumanns or Liszt. "Instead," declares Mrs. Swinney, "our ears are assailed by passionate protestations to 'My Little Chimpanzee'."

Instead of Beethoven's sonatas, we have the "Bamboo Tree."

Mrs. Swinney emphasized the power of music for good, but declared its power was prevented by modern popular music. She deplored the fact that at the present time there seemed to be a much greater demand for cool songs than for the classics and masterpieces of musical production, and emphasized the power the mother has in imparting to her children a proper musical taste.

Thursday evening the board of lady managers gave a very pretty tea in honor of the visiting musical club members.

MRS. MAKEEL NOT FORGIVEN

Home of Chicago Woman Arrested With Her Butler in St. Louis Has New Occupants.

Mrs. Frankie Makeel, who was arrested in St. Louis in company with her negro butler, James Prather, has not been forgiven by her husband, according to Chicago dispatches.

After reaching Chicago from St. Louis last week, Mrs. Makeel went to her home, 318 Lake avenue, and there met her husband and daughter. Her husband, who went in company with a member of the law firm of which her husband is senior member.

The interview between Mrs. Makeel and her husband is said to have been short, and at the end Mrs. Makeel left the house. She is now supposed to be staying with friends.

The same night Makeel and his 13-year-old daughter left the house. Since then the furniture and other household effects have been sold and a new tenant occupies the Makeel home. The husband and daughter are said to have left the home after dark in order to avoid talk.

Previous to leaving St. Louis, Mrs. Makeel was supposed to have effected a reconciliation with her husband.

At the Four Courts, where she was taken after her arrest, Mrs. Makeel admitted she had been indiscreet, but said "it was all a horrible mistake." She was trying to induce her butler to return to her service, she said.

DEMOCRATS OPPOSE MORMONS

Adoption of National Opposition to Polygamy Demanded in Idaho.

BOISE, Idaho, June 2.—The county Democratic convention has adopted Senator Duff's plan for dealing with the Mormon question. The resolutions adopted demand a plank in the national platform favoring the admission of an amendment to the constitution giving Congress authority to deal with the problem of polygamy and punish those guilty of polygamous practices.

Another demand is that the state convention adopt a plank in favor of state legislation against the practice of polygamy.

MENS AND YOUNG MENS

$16.50, $18 and $20 SUITS FOR $11.50

Now for Another Very Busy Saturday.

Men who are mindful of their own best interests should attend and profit by this unusual clothing snap that's scheduled here for Saturday. Tomorrow we give you choice of 520 of this spring and summer's finest $16.50, $18.00 and $20.00 Suits for the small sum of $11.50. Now don't measure the worth of these handsome suits by Saturday's selling price—they're not the ordinary $11.50 value, but actually worth $16.50, $18.00 and $20.00—and that's what they have been marked up to now. Because these lines are broken—because only one, two and up to six suits of a pattern remain—because we want the space they occupy for outing apparel, which is crowding in by every freight—we have made this remarkable price-inducement for Saturday's selling. Included are all the nobbiest and most fashionable suit ideas created this season—all products of America's foremost tailors. You'll never know how really extraordinary this offering is until you yourself inspect these excellent $16.50, $18.00 and $20.00 suits that we will sell Saturday at the very special price of

The Humorists' Banquet Will Be the Funniest Thing That Ever Happened.

CHESTNUTS? NO. BRAND NEW

Funny Men From All Over the Country Will Each Have a Chance.

A banquet will be given the Press Humorists at the Mercantile Club this evening by the Business Men's League. Hon. Cyrus P. Walbridge, president of the league, will deliver an address of welcome entitled "Our Guests." The next man up will be William J. Lampton of New York, who is located somewhere near Long Island. His stunt will be "A Yawp, on the Fullness of the Earth." Up to the time of going to press it has been impossible to learn from Mr. Lampton the cause of the fullness, or the possible effect. Mr. Lampton will be followed by Mr. James W. Foley of North Dakota, where the gentle prairie breezes insist on turning cyclone cellars inside out and moving your henhouse over into Mr. Plunkert's cabbage patch, 10 miles away. Mr. Foley will talk on "Most Anything."

Strickland W. Gilliam, who immortalized the names of Flanagan and Flanagan, will tell what he knows about "Sunshine and Awkwardness" and will be followed by George S. Johns, who will put "Something Serious" over the plate.

Melville D. Landon, more widely known as Eli Perkins, is expected to say things about his "Inner Consciousness" which very few men would say, and A. L. Bixby from Nebraska will talk about "Wooden Platforms and Others."

Lowell Otus Rees of San Francisco, where the wind blows dust in your eyes from a dozen different directions at the same time, will, it is expected, say something about the "Land of the Hatching Sun." Robert J. Burdette, who, as the main guy of a townsmen's convention would say, "scarcely needs an introduction," will at this stage startle his hearers with some "Confessions of a Confessor."

Thomas A. Daly of Philadelphia is scheduled to tell of the trials and tribulations of an eastern Irishman in St. Louis, where, it has been said, no man is allowed to vote unless he can qualify as a pinocchio player. Sam E. Kiser of Chicago, who has not the time to look up the location of this place in the geography and would suggest that the curious write to the "Answer" man will talk about "The Office Boy" behind his back. Roy L. McCordell, the original Nagg in "Mrs. Nagg and Mr. Nagg" will be asked to tell from his own experience "How I Have Been Nagg."

Edwin F. Kirk, otherwise known as the Norse Nightingale, will then be prevailed upon to tell us just what he thinks about us in an oration entitled "My Impressions of St. Louis." Mr. Kirk is practically alone in the world. He has no reason to fear what he says. Edwin A. Oliver of Chicago, who claims to be the father of the conversational joke, will hold some of the other guests will be allowed to listen. As a grand finale Robertus Love, the same man who wrote "Poems All the Way From the Pike," will make some "Announcements." As Mr. Love is secretary of the Humorists these may be very humorous.

10,000 "DRUMMERS" PARADE AT FAIR

U. T. C. Association Is Addressed by President Francis, Gov. Dockery and Senator Stone.

Friday is United Commercial Travelers' Day at the Fair and 10,000 "drummers" were in line for the grand parade from the Inside Inn to the Louisiana monument at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Traveling men from every state were there, and the procession was representative. Heading the line of march was Grand Marshal Longner and staff, preceded by a battalion of Jefferson Guards and Well's band.

The six divisions of the parade followed in order: First division, E. P. Major, marshal—Supreme officers of the U. T. C. of America and the grand council of Missouri. Second division, J. L. Kehr, marshal—Councils of Ohio, Indiana, New York, Tennessee, Texas, Washington, Montana and Utah.

Third division, N. A. Klein, marshal—Councils of Iowa, Illinois, Oklahoma, Indian Territory, Minnesota and Dakota. Fourth division, preceded by Indian band of 40 pieces, Charles N. Parrish, marshal—Councils of Kansas, Mississippi, Louisiana, Manitoba, Virginia, West Virginia, Nebraska, Rhode Island, Maine, New Hampshire and Connecticut.

Fifth division, M. Koenigsberg, marshal—Councils of Massachusetts, Kentucky, Maryland, Wisconsin, Oregon, California, Colorado, Pennsylvania, Arkansas, Georgia, Alabama and Idaho.

Sixth division, W. A. Mehling, marshal—Council of Missouri. After the review of the parade in the Plaza St. Louis, the drummers were welcomed at 3 o'clock by Tom L. Johnson, chairman of the entertainment committee, in behalf of the Missouri grand council, and by President D. R. Francis in behalf of the Exposition company.

The afternoon program at the Louisiana monument continued with the following numbers:

Address by W. L. Day, supreme counselor of the U. T. C. of America. Address by P. J. V. Skiff, director of exhibits. Address by C. A. Bwing, grand counselor of the U. T. C. of Missouri. Address by Gov. A. M. Dockery of Missouri. Address by Gov. Myron T. Herrick of Ohio. Address by Senator William J. Stone of Missouri. Address by Congressman Richard Bartholdt of St. Louis. Address by Congressman John T. Hunt of St. Louis.

NO IMITATION FIGHTS.
The Genuine Straight-Out Bull-Fights 'to Be Held in St. Louis.'
Bull-fights that will be the real thing will be absolutely given Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in an arena seating 13,000 people, located between Delmar Garden and Fair site. Take Suburban cars marked "To Administration Gate."

PIKE WILL SPREAD OVER WHOLE FAIR

Shows Will Not Be Free, but There Will Be Lots of Free Shows.

Everything on the Pike, representing an extent of time from the Creation to the Hereafter, and a variety of scenes from a '49 mining camp to a galaxy of Oriental beauties, will be represented in the monster two-mile Pike day parade at the World's Fair Saturday afternoon. The parade will begin on the Pike at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, and will pass over the principal avenues of the Exposition. In point of size it will surpass a combination of all circuses and menageries doing business in the United States. It was stated at the office of Norris B. Gregg, director of concessions, that regular admission fees will be charged at all Pike attractions tomorrow, and that there will be no free shows except those announced on the program.

It is estimated that more than 200,000 persons will pass within the gates of the Exposition during the day, and that all records, even that of opening day, will be surpassed. An impression has prevailed that all Pike attractions will be free during the day, but while this is not the case, an abundance of free attractions has been provided for the entertainment of the immense crowds.

During the big parade the Pike will be deserted, but before and after its regular admission fees will be charged at all attractions.

Pike Day will open at 11 o'clock in the morning with a lacrosse game for the championship of the world between the Obijaw Indians of Canada and the Ironquins Indians of the United States. The game will be played in the arena of Cummins' Indian Congress, and admission will be free.

Lee Schuyler, world's high diver, will plunge into the grand basin of the Plaza of St. Louis from a platform 100 feet above the surface of the water at 11:15. At 1 o'clock in the afternoon the big parade will commence. The parade will last until a circuit of the principal parts of the Fair has been made.

Jean P. Witzman and his sister will perform on a high wire stretched across the Plaza of St. Louis between the Palace of Varied Industries and the Palace of Manufactures at 3 o'clock. Half an hour later Lee Schuyler will repeat his high dive into the grand basin. At 3:45 Hinde acrobats will give an exhibition of sliding on a vertical cable 100 feet high.

Swimming races between natives of many nations will take place in the grand basin from 4 until 5 o'clock.

In the evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, there will be a parade of the Beauties of the Pike. The procession will include 200 dancers from the various attractions. Fifteen minutes after the parade starts Jean Witzman and his sister will repeat their high wire performance above the Plaza of St. Louis. The grand ballet of all nations will be given at 8 o'clock on the stage in the Plaza of St. Louis.

"EXIT PASS" IS SIMPLIFIED

World's Fair Gatemen Will Recognize Passes on All Packages Sold by Concessionaires.

Under the conditions now existing at the World's Fair there should be no further trouble in securing "exit passes," the possessors of which are permitted to carry packages from the grounds without embarrassing waits or searches.

Guards at the various exit gates have been informed that a pass issued by the concessionaire who makes the sale of an article is sufficient "O. K." for the removal of the property from the grounds.

The pass may be written upon a business card, bill head or letter head. In such cases it is merely necessary to designate the contents of the package or box as a pitcher, globe, basket, table, etc. The pass is then turned in as the visitor leaves the Fair.

Considerable embarrassment and many scenes have occurred during the past month which made the order necessary. Many purchasers, indignant at a demand to see the contents of their packages or strips, and refusing point blank to make a trip to the Administration building, fully a mile from some gates, have caused a tie-up at the exits. Generally it would be found that they were entitled to full possession of the articles they desired to remove and apologies were received with ill-concealed dissatisfaction.

The matter is now put up to the owners of the booths who make the sales. Until the order becomes fully understood and in practice guards are permitted to use their discretion of passing outgoing bundles.

The BEST HOT WEATHER MEDICINE

Cascarets
CANDY CATHARTIC

THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP.

PREVENT ALL SUMMER BOWEL TROUBLES
Undigested food in the human body will ferment a hundred times as quickly in summer as in winter. Consequence—stomach, liver, bowels, poisons, thrown out of order; sour stomach, gases, colic, diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera, appendicitis, and in some regions yellow fever and the plague. Little children suffer terribly everywhere. The proper thing is to send all impure and unnecessary matter out of the body every day—not give it a chance to sour in the stomach and bowels. You will stop hot, feverish conditions and keep your insides cool and healthy. To do it, use a medicine that is pleasant to the taste and not harsh and violent in its action. The only safe system-cleaner to take in summer, because it will not cause diarrhoea or griping, is Cascarets. All druggists, 10c, 25c, 50c. Never sold in bulk. The genuine tablet stamped C.C.C. Guaranteed to cure or your money back. Sample and booklet free. Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or New York.

Jack, the Jester, Whose Merry Pranks Are Told in Four Words

As You Make It.
S. E. Kiser in Chicago Record-Herald.
To the preacher life's a sermon,
To the joker life's a jest;
The miser life is money,
To the loafer life is rest.

To the lawyer life's a trial,
To the poet life's a song;
To the doctor life's a patient
That needs treatment right along.

To the soldier life's a battle,
To the teacher life's a school;
Life's a "good thing" to the grafter,
It's a failure to the fool.

To the man upon the engine
Life's a long and heavy grade;
It's a gamble to the gambler,
To the merchant life is trade.

Life's a picture to the artist,
To the rascal life's a fraud;
Life perhaps is but a burden
To the man beneath the hod.

Life is lovely to the lover,
To the player life's a play;
Life may be a load of trouble
To the man upon the drag.

Life is but a long vacation
To the man who loves his work;
Life is an everlasting effort
To shun duty to the shirk.

To the heaven-blasted romancer
Life's a story ever new;
Life is what we try to make it—
Brother, what is life to you?

DIVERS BREAK EARLY.
Few of Them Live Beyond Fifty, and Fear Grows Upon Them.

(From Cleveland Moffett's "Careers of Danger and Daring." Copyright, 1903.
The Century Co.)

It is amusing to note the scorn of practical divers for the nice electric-lighting and telephone contrivances of divers who never dive, but sell their inventions to the government for its Newport diving school, which same inventions remain, for the most part, in their spick-span boxes. It seems simple enough to have submarine lights; yet divers who dive prefer to grope in the almost darkness of their ordinary waters. It seems a distinct advantage.

that diver and tender be able to talk over a wire, yet divers who dive keep jealously to the clumsy system of jerks on the lines, and will not even be bothered with the Morse alphabet. The fact is, a diver has quite as much as he can attend to with the burden of his suit (about a hundred and seventy-five pounds), and his two lines to watch and keep from kinks and entanglements. Touch one of these lines, and you touch his life. Fasten a new line to him, or two new lines, and you enormously increase his peril. Imagine yourself stumbling about in a dark forest, with a man strapped on your back, and several ropes dragging behind you among trees and rocks, each separate rope being to you as breath and blood! That is precisely the diver's case. So he goes; so he works. And when they offer him pretty apparatus to increase his load, he will have none of it. Nor will he tug any extra ropes. "I have ways enough of dying as it is," says he. One is sorry to learn that divers go to pieces early; few of them last beyond fifty.

As they grow old their keenness wanes; they lose their bearings easily down below, and show bad judgment. And fear of the business grows upon them. Often they seek false courage in strong drink, which hurries on the end. Too many of them, after searching all their lives for "Wecks," wind up as wrecks themselves. But it is good to know that there are exceptions—divers like Bill Atkinson, sturdy and true at fifty, and good in the suit for years to come, unless their wives persuade them to retire. The diver's wife, I am told—poor woman!—starts with terror every time she hears the door-bell ring.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is the best of all remedies for children teething, 25c.

A Reflection.
Washington had crossed the Delaware. "It's a good thing we didn't build a bridge," he reflected, "for the opposition papers might claim that we conspired with the county commissioners to loot the public treasury."—Cleveland Leader.

LEADERS PLANNING
CORTELYOU REVOLT

Propose to Take Selection of National Chairman Out of Roosevelt's Hands.

COMMITTEE TO MAKE CHOICE

Senators Hale, Spooner, Penrose, Allison and Aldrich the Leaders of the Movement.

Special to Post-Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, June 3.—A plan has been developed by Republican leaders to circumvent President Roosevelt in his determination to make Secretary Cortelyou chairman of the national committee to manage the approaching campaign. The plan is to have the committee select its own chairman, ignoring the President's wishes. The leaders urge that the success of the party at the polls is superior to the personal preferences of Mr. Roosevelt. They declare his individual opinion should not be permitted to invite disaster.

Behind the movement, as leaders, are Senators Hale, Spooner, Penrose, Allison and Aldrich. It is said the scheme has developed sufficiently to make its promoters sanguine of success. No one has attempted to deny that the selection of Mr. Cortelyou is unsatisfactory to the majority of Republican congressional leaders. Several of them made known their objections to the President and were curtly informed that the matter was settled. The objection to Cortelyou among the politicians is that he has had no practical experience as a campaign manager and could not obtain from the money interests the funds necessary to a successful campaign. Mr. Roosevelt himself does not believe any great amount of money will be needed, and he thinks Cortelyou's executive ability, activity and resourcefulness will make up for any lack of experience. In fact, he wants a clean campaign conducted upon the highest political plane, and this, he thinks, Mr. Cortelyou can guarantee.

KENTUCKY WILL HARDLY INSTRUCT

Parker Sentiment Strong and Hearst Following Almost at the Disappearing Point.

Special to Post-Dispatch.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 3.—The Kentucky state convention will be held here next Wednesday, and although agents of W. R. Hearst have canvassed Kentucky with a thoroughness not surpassed in any large state, they admit that they have not the slightest chance of securing instructions. It is probable that there is not another state in the Union where the Hearst following is so small. The Parker sentiment is strong, but the party leaders have practically agreed that the state delegation should go uninstructed. The platform will deal only with five issues, and there will be no instruction of the Kansas City platform, though Bryan has a good following. The last effort made by the Hearst men was to win over the county chairmen, hoping thus to secure the county delegations, but the scheme was frustrated. Probably there is not a county in the state that Hearst could count upon. The plan was to have the delegation instructed for Judge Parker, but it is almost certain that the convention will choose not to instruct. Senators Blackburn and McCreary are divided—the former being for Gorman and the latter for Parker.

GREENHORNS
AS INVENTORS

In 1857 a carpenter of Sandwich, Mass., wanting a piece of glass of a particular size and shape, conceived the idea that the molten metal could be pressed into any form, much the same as lead might be. Writes William R. Stewart in the Cosmopolitan. Up to that time all glassware had been blown, either off-hand or in a mould, and considerable skill was required and the process was slow. The glass manufacturers laughed at the carpenter, but he went ahead and built a press, and now the United States is the greatest pressed-glassware country in the world. In 1880 a novice in the plate-glass industry, Henry Fleckner of Pittsburgh, whose only knowledge of glass had been acquired in a window-glass factory, invented an annealing "lehr," the most important single improvement ever introduced in plate-glass manufacture. In three hours by the lehr the same work is done which under the old kiln system required three days. In four years the importations of foreign crown and plate glass into the United States fell in value from $2,000,000 to $200,000. About the same year Philip Argonaut of Pittsburgh, also a novice in glass-making, invented a process by which bottles and jars may be made entirely by machinery, the costly blow-over process being avoided and the expense of bottle-making reduced one-half. The result has been that more bottles and jars are used in a month now than in twelve months ten years ago.

ELIXIR OF YOUTH IS REAL THING

Refined Woman Becomes Child in Earnest After Taking Overdose, Amuses New York Crowd.

NEW YORK, June 2.—Use of some remarkable stimulant, the nature of which has not been learned, has caused a strange scene in Sixth avenue.

From a bottle the label of which marked it as containing elixir of youth, the dose being one teaspoonful every two hours, a woman of evident refinement and about 40 years old, took a long drink while standing on the sidewalk near Fifteenth street. Her peculiar actions attracted the attention of a large crowd, which soon grew to such proportions that the police reserves had to be called to clear the street car tracks. The "elixir" was a wonder worker. Five minutes after taking the drink the woman began to caper about like a child. She danced to the music of a street piano, played hide and seek and exhibited all the antics of a child. When the police arrived she beat one of them and exhibited a remarkable strength. It required the combined efforts of seven officers to overcome the woman, and she was carried to the hospital, where doctors are expressing all to her recovery. No marks of identification were found.
